C I T T À

MILANO

1997-2001 • 2019 ...

Twenty years later Città returns to talk about Milan thanks to the words and images of the most prestigious Italian journalists and photographers. Today as then, insightful articles go along with full-page black and white photographs to show and convey a new energy that characterises Milan nowadays.

Through a selected distribution as well as one more accessible, Città integrates traditional communication channels with digital solutions, reflecting the needs of a market under constant transformation that led printed magazines into a new dimension of collectible classic.
